

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, September 22. 1702.

From the Leiden Gazette, Dated Sept. 21.

Naples, Aug. 29.

TH E Marquis del Vasto, Don Ma-litia Caraffa, and Don Cecca Grimaldi, who have been absent for some time out of this Kingdom to avoid being prosecuted for their Adhering to the Interest of the House of Austria are declared Rebels and guilty of High Treason. The Viceroy has imprison'd several Citizens, for having affirm'd openly that the Account which was publish'd here of the Battel at Luzara was utterly false, and that it was the Imperialists who gain'd the Victory. But his Excellency has abated of his Rigour towards those that are accus'd of being concern'd in the last Conspiracy, upon the Inhabitants of Naples threatening to make a general Insurrection if there was not a stop put to those violent Proceedings.
'Tis reported that there is some Discontent between the K. of Spain and our Viceroy, the first charging him with not having prosecuted the Enemy's of the present Government with due severity, and the other ex-cusing himself by alledging that the Male-contents ought to be treated with gentleness, and that imprisonments and executions was not the way to bring them over to Obedience.
Whereupon 'tis discours'd that the Viceroy will be sent back to his Government of Sicily, and that the Viceroyalty of Naples will be conferr'd on the Duke D'Uzeda Ambassador of Spain at the Court of Rome.

The last Letters from Milan say, that on the 29th ult. The King of Spain had publish'd an Order forbidding all his Subjects in the Dutchy of Milan to hold any commerce with the Germans English or Dutch. That Officers of the Army of the two united Crowns arriv'd daily in the City of Milan sick of Feavers. That the Duke of Mantua having felt some Indisposition likewise was gone to Casal in the Monferrat for change of Air: and that the Imperial Partys did so harra'ss the Convoys that supply the K. of Spain's Army with Provisions, that Bread and Wine was grown to a heavy price in that Camp.

They write from Mantua on the 4th Inst.
that the Bloody Flux and Burning Feavers were very rife there, and carry'd off abundance of People; that notwithstanding the raising of the Blockade of that City, they were yet in great want of Corn, Wine, and other Provisions; which is occasion'd by the frequent excursions of the Hussars of the Garrison of Borgoforte: and that there had been a contest for the Rank or Post of Honour between the French and Spanish Troops that are garrison'd in the City of Mantua, insomuch that it was found necessary to separate them; and to make them mount the Guarda part.

Falmouth, Sept. 17. A Zealand Caper call'd the Seven Provinces, has brought in a French Ship of 8 Guns 44 Men and 250 Tuns, taken upon the Coast of Galicia on the 10th, which says that she came from the Havana in Company of 15 Galleons 25 Men of War and 4 Fireships, but was separated from them in bad weather in the Latitude of 42, and that they are certainly bound directly for Cadiz.
